Profile

Samantha Chan takes a personal approach to the practice of law, ensuring that her clients are making informed decisions based on a thorough analysis of their case. She strives to ensure that her clients feel supported and empowered throughout the legal process. By understanding each client's unique needs and circumstances, Samantha is able to provide knowledgeable guidance and representation in even the most complex family law cases. Samantha focuses on a broad range of family law matters, such as prenuptial agreements, marital settlement agreements, divorce, child custody, child support, spousal support, and asset division.

With a particular interest in cases that allow her to learn and represent clients' struggles and passions, Samantha finds high-conflict cases to be both challenging and rewarding. Her greatest strength as an attorney is her ability to listen carefully to her clients and hone in on their concerns. By prioritizing and managing client expectations, she works to identify realistic goals and ensure that her clients feel supported throughout the legal process.

As a first-generation Asian American, Samantha is proud to be the first person in her family to graduate college and go to law school. She is committed to using her advocacy skills to represent those who may not have a voice or are afraid to speak up.
