Profile

Vida Mokhtari's approach to the practice of law is very client driven. Her focus is on educating her clients, so they feel they fully understand their case, and are part of the process. Through understanding the various steps in their case, Vida's clients feel confident and secure in her representation of them.

Vida is passionate about helping her clients restore some normalcy to their lives after a traumatic accident. She does so through one-on-one care and a focus on communication and attention to detail. She understands the stress that an accident puts on every aspect of her clients' lives, and quickly makes her clients feel safely assured that she has their back.

Prior to joining Stein Sperling, Vida was an associate at a Gaithersburg, Maryland, law firm where she worked on personal injury, traffic/criminal matters and civil litigation cases. Vida is bilingual, and fluent in Farsi.
