Profile

Jamie Maier's practice of law revolves around not just understanding the text of the law but also reading between the lines, identifying legislative intent, and creatively using legal tools to benefit her clients. She thrives on finding unconventional solutions within the legal framework and using her extensive knowledge and experience to help her clients achieve their goals. She assists her clients in all aspects of family law, from custody, child support, alimony and other divorce issues to pre- and post-nuptial agreements, contempt and modification proceedings.

Jamie's practice centers around helping her clients through one of the most difficult and personal challenges they may ever face – divorce or separation. Her clients often come to her with fears of the unknown, and Jamie is there to guide them through the legal process, address their concerns, and provide reassurance. She ensures that her clients always receive candid and open advice, and her commitment to helping them attain their goals is unwavering.

With over 13 years' experience, Jamie takes pride in her ability to provide her clients with the relief and justice they deserve. Her greatest gratification comes from seeing her client's positive reactions at the conclusion of trial and receiving hand-written thank-you notes from clients after their cases have concluded with updates about their families post-litigation. She genuinely cares about her clients and their families long after the case is resolved.

Education

University of Harford (B.A., magna cum laude, 2006)
University of Baltimore School of Law (J.D., 2009)

More

When not working, Jamie clears her head and gets in touch with her creative side by crafting, playing cards - especially Mahjong - and family game nights with her husband and two children.
